Road

The Thomas Lownsborough House is recommended for designation under Part IV, Section 29 of the Ontario Heritage Act as a property of cultural heritage value or interest as described in the following Statement of Significance.

DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY

The Thomas Lownsborough House is a one-and-a-half storey frame house located on the west side of Kennedy Road between 16th Avenue to the south and Vanderbergh Avenue to the north. The primary elevation of the house faces eastwards towards Kennedy Road.

DESIGN OR PHYSICAL VALUE

The Thomas Lownsborough House is of design or physical value as a representative example of a tradesman’s dwelling in a vernacular version of the Gothic Revival style commonly referred to as a Classic Ontario centre gable cottage. It is also a representative example of an evolved building, which started as a modestly-scaled one storey vernacular tradesman’s dwelling in the mid-19th century that was later raised to one and a half storeys, perhaps in the 1870s or 1880s.

HISTORICAL OR ASSOCIATIVE VALUE

The Thomas Lownsborough House is of historical or associative value as the c.1845 home of Thomas Lownsborough, an English-born shoemaker who was part of the Hunter’s Corners community north of Unionville while a tenant of John Hunter, and later his daughter, Ada Naomi Hunter, from c.1845 to 1891. In 1892, Miss Hunter sold the property to Reverend Henry B. Owen, Rector of St. Philip’s Anglican Church, next door to the north. The Reverend Owen served the church from 1891 until his death in 1899.

CONTEXTUAL VALUE

The Thomas Lownsborough House is of contextual value as one of a few cultural heritage features remaining from the historic community of Hunter’s Corners.

HERITAGE ATTRIBUTES

Character-defining attributes that embody the cultural heritage value of the Thomas Lownsborough House are organized by their respective Ontario Regulation 9/06 criteria below:

Heritage attributes that convey the property’s design value as a representative example of a tradesman’s dwelling in a vernacular version of the Gothic Revival style include:

- Overall form and massing of the one-and-a-half storey dwelling;
- Re-instated Front veranda with bellcast roof;
- Re-instated Ornamentation consisting of brackets and corbels;
- Vertical tongue and groove siding;
- Medium- pitched gable roof with projecting, open eaves, and steep centre gable on the east (primary) elevation;
- Asymmetrical placement of the front door and window openings;
- Size and placement of existing door and window openings;

- Re-instated two-over-two hung windows fitted with shutters.

Note that the multi-storey rear addition is not considered to be of significant cultural heritage value and as such, does not contain any heritage attributes.

Heritage attributes that convey the property's historical and contextual value as a fragment of the Hunter's Corners community:

- The dwelling's setback from Kennedy Road which, despite past road widening, helps communicate the rural character of the former community of Hunter's Corners;
- The unobstructed visibility of the dwelling's east (primary), north and south elevations from Kennedy Road reflecting its original prominence when constructed.
